Based on class discussions and your own evaluation of the parents participating in this class series, please answer the following questions. Feel free to use the back of this sheet or an extra piece of paper if needed. This information is extremely important for funding the Motherread/Fatheread program, so please include specifics where you are able.

- 1. What are the greatest challenges these parents are facing in their everyday lives?
- 2. How were you able to address these challenges in your classes?
- 3. Do you feel that the class format and curriculum were effective and appropriate for this population?
- 4. Did you notice changes in the parent's attitudes towards reading as a result of these classes?
- 5. If so, please share any significant outcomes or changes you observed in your participants.
- 6. How would you change the format or content of these classes to be more effective next time?

7. Is there any way Humanities Washington can offer more assistance?
